

ASLEEP IN DEATH.

The Magic City Sleeps the Sleep that Knows No Awakening.

MIDDLEBORO, Oct. 28.—I am in the Magic City, but the wand has departed from her hand. When I was here a few years ago I found 10,000 people, to-day less than 2,000. There are nearly 1,000 houses vacant. Houses that cost $12,000 can be bought for $1,500. People can come here and take possession of dwelling-houses, two stories high and live in them perhaps forever, rent free. The owners are scattered over all the States of the Union, some in Europe and some are dead. The magnificent Art building, I understand, cost $45, and yet it is like a mansion in the desert of Sahara. I did not think this great city could die in its youth, but 'tis dead nevertheless. When I was here less than three years ago I won three cases by dinner. To-day I went around to the city hall and it looked like some "banquet hall deserted." A dry autumn leaf on the floor did but remind me of the many blighted hopes and fortunes blasted and buried here.

In the Marlin case I spoke of this city as the modern Sodom and Gomorrah. The Middleboro lawyers asked me what I meant by speaking of their city in that style. I told them nothing more than that it was noted for its genteel politeness, such as drinking, gambling, murdering and dancing cotillions in the leafy bowers of the forest. But 'tis due the mountain environed city to say that nearly all the crimes are committed in and outside the suburbs. All appeared quiet and peaceable inside the city and there are here still some insignia of former greatness and grandeur.

They have a petition in circulation to reinstate Arthur, whom I saw here and many think he can say "Lazarus come forth" and the dead city will arise and shake off the cere cloth and yet march on to greatness and glory.

Our former countymen, T. M. Pennington and Bourne G. Pennington, are here and several more from different parts of Lincoln county. Judge Montfort, formerly of the Court of Appeals, is at Pineville, not only attending court, but residing there. We supposed that some of the lawyers there were getting fees in some of the large corporation cases from $1,000 to $10,000. The Atlantic Trust Company has sued the Belt Railway Company for about $1,000,000. They are in the hands of a receiver.

KILLED ONLY ONE

And that Unintentionally. Capt. White Corrects a Statement in Unmistakable Terms.

(To the Editor Interior Journal.)
LANCASTER, Oct. 28.—I am sorry you were led into the error you made in your issue of Friday morning, saying that my son, Charley, had killed two men. Now the truth of the matter about that is this: You have been imposed on by some Ananias, who has told you an unmitigated, old-fashioned, Anglo-Saxon lie, with a capital L. Charley never killed but one person, and he didn't do that intentionally. Now I know this to be the fact. Your informant is a bare-faced liar. Will you please make the correction and oblige your old friend and well-wisher.
F. J. WHITE.

—On the threat to tell her husband that he had made an improper proposal to her James Jennings shot and almost instantly killed Mrs. Mary Campbell at Atlanta.

—The last Sunday at the World's Fair was the greatest in attendance. The paid admissions were 146,821. The total paid admissions to Sunday including that day are 21,251,392.

—Mrs. John G. Carlisle is preparing a cook book which will be published this winter. It will include the results of Mrs. Carlisle's experience in housekeeping and some contributions from her friends.

—E. Y. McKeehan, postmaster at Corbin, died Friday, aged 36. He was a fine business man and had one of the largest stores in the mountains. Besides a wife he leaves four children, for whom he had well provided in addition to carrying a life insurance of $5,000.

The Queen and Crescent Route is preparing to issue an elaborate publication in magazine form, descriptive of the different sections of the South tributary to its lines. Capitalists, tourists and business men are not likely to forget the southern cities so long as the Queen and Crescent Route can reach them with this artistic publication. Copy of this magazine will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents in postage stamps. Address, W. C. Rineason, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Why, certainly, consumption can be cured, if the lungs are not too far gone. Kill the microbes that cause that cause the inflammation with Stockton's Anti-septic. It penetrates every tissue of the lungs, causes a good appetite and builds up the system generally. Do not lose hope, but give Anti-septic a trial and you will have many years of life and health before you.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. Mose Collier and family, of Gilbert's Creek, have moved to Dr. Huffman's property on Richmond street.
—Dr. W. S. O'Neal, who was hurt by falling over a wire chicken coop on Elkin's corner, has recovered sufficiently to get about.

—Everyone who could get a conveyance Sunday went to the dedication at McCreary and hardly a corporal's guard was left in town.

—Politics seem to be way below par in Garrard. One can hear little or no talk on the subject, for which we have every reason to be thankful.

—Mr. Will Elkin, of Atlanta, is here visiting his relatives. He and Mr. Will Watson went to Atlanta a few years ago as clerks and now own one of the finest and largest drug stores in that city.

—Mr. Yonan, a Persian, who is attending the Theological Seminary at Louisville, delivered a lecture at the Court-house, Saturday night, his subject being "Foreign Missions." He preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

—The examining trial of Eb Doty for killing Charley White was held before Judge Robinson, Friday, and he was held in $200 bond to await the action of the grand jury. The statement in the last issue of this paper that White had killed two men was a mistake. He had only killed one—Jack Grimes. White fell within 10 feet of the spot where he killed Grimes.

—About 1,500 people attended the dedication of the church at New Antioch Sunday. The building is situated about 300 yards beyond McCreary post-office and is a handsome one indeed. It was the I. J. man's good fortune to be on hand about the time dinner was served and to say that it was an elegant one hardly expresses it. A protracted meeting will be held during the week at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. and will be conducted by Eld. Reynolds, of North Middletown.

—Dr. Phillips and family, of Kirkeville, have moved to the Harris property recently purchased by him. Casey Owsley, of Centre College, visited his mother Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Fred Lip-pold, of Louisville, was here this week the guest of Mr. W. J. Clemerson. Mrs. George D. Burdett has returned to her home in Omaha. Miss Eliza Lusk has returned from Point Burnside. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Paxton, of Stanford, were the guests of Mrs. Alex. Robinson Sunday. Miss Eliza Smith has returned from the World's Fair.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Col. A. R. Dyche is on the raging stump in Laurel and I'll wager a nickel he beats McQuade.

—Lee Mahan had the misfortune to lose one of his fingers in McKee's planing mill last week.

—A protracted meeting at Old Union has resulted in many conversions, mourners and shouters.

—A picnic near the Pulaski line in the Colony district resulted in a large number of broken heads and bruised noses.
—Evan McKeehan, a wealthy merchant of Corbin died Friday night of typhoid fever. He was buried near Lily Sunday with Masonic honors.

—Marriage license have been issued since last report to the following couples: James M. Lawson and Miss Mary Durham, Dan Elkin and Miss Mary Holt, J. T. Steel and Mrs. E. A. Henley, C. C. Johnson and Miss Margaret Lusk.

—The Whisky Trust has advanced the price of whisky 3 cents on a gallon in two weeks.

—Hon. Edwin F. Uhl, of Grand Rapids, Mich., if said to have been tendered and will accept the position of Assistant Secretary of the State.

—From reports from Weather Bureau stations in the cotton belt it seems probable that the frost line Sunday morning extended as far south as Vicksburg, Montgomery and Atlanta.

—The Springfield News says: There is a host of good democrats longing for ex-Gov. J. B. McCreary's Congressional shoes. The man who gets them will get up early and he who wears them worthily will be a hustler for all that is out.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklin's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never had a single remedy that sold as well or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. A. R. Penny, druggist.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for croup. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites where a cough remedy is intended for use among children. I have known cases of croup where the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." J. J. La-Grange, druggist, Avoca, Neb.

—Wanted to rent a farm. About 100 acres preferred. Jeff D. Jones, Stanford.

—At a sale in Fayette county fat hogs sold at 6c and corn at $1.50 in the shock.

—Joe Wilkerson purchased 154 export cattle in Fayette, 1,530 to 1,580 lbs. at 4.20 to 4.40.

—J. P. Crow's three-year-old Alex C., by Belmont Chief, took a record of 2:24 at Danville Friday.

—The Harrodsburg Democrat reports sales of a lot of 230-pound hogs at 5.90, 34 steers at 1c and a lot of sugar mules at $130.

—E. P. Woods has bought in the last week of various parties in this vicinity, two car-loads of fat hogs at 5 to 5 1/2c and a car-load of 1,450-pound export cattle at 4c.

—Yo Tambien easily defeated Lamp-lighter in the match race at Hawthorne Park, Chicago. Clifford was to start, but his owner thought the track too heavy.

—Masco, the pacer, and Directum, the trotter, have been matched for $2,500 a side, the race to take place Nov. 2, over the track of the New York Driving Club at Fleetwood.

—B. W. Gaines sold to J. W. Adams a lot of fat hogs at 5 1/2c. John Spoonamore sold a nice lot to Adams at same price. E. B. Beasley sold to same party a bunch at same price.

—John A. Hugely bought of Harvey Bonta 24 1,400 pound cattle at 4 cents. P. C. Sandidge has delivered to W. H. Peritt a bunch of hogs averaging 250 pounds that he sold for 6 cents.—Advocate.

—Naboth, the speedy Walsingham stallion belonging to J. K. and Smith Baughman, lowered his record a second at Cecil's track, at Danville, last week by going the distance in 2:20 1/2. The last half was made in 1:07 1/2.

—Upon the report that the Senate would repeal the silver-purchasing clause of the act of 1890, wheat advanced on the Chicago Board of Trade 1 1/2c a bushel. There will be a still more marked advance when the act shall have been repealed and signed by the president.

—R. R. Georgehan, the Louisville hatter, has assigned for $8,000.

—Champion Corbett's announcement that he will not fight before the Olympic Club unless a $10,000 guarantee is made, has temporarily "queered" the big mill.

—The battleship Oregon was launched at San Francisco. She is the heaviest vessel of any description ever launched in American waters, being of 10,200 tons displacement.

—President Cleveland has granted a pardon to George Brashears, sentenced in Arkansas to be hanged for murder and the sentence commuted in 1889 to imprisonment for life.

—While John Clarke was kneading a 700-pound bunch of dough in the kitchen of a restaurant at the World's Fair, his hand was caught in the flanges of the kneading machine, and completely severed. When asked where his hand was he replied: "I guess it is in the dough, but I hope it won't spoil the bread."

—Frank Muffley, of Bourbon, Ind., aged 90, was bitten on the hand by a cat. The member at once became swollen and he was soon a raving maniac and went about mewing, whining and clawing like a cat. At last he ran away from home on his all fours and tried to cross a railroad track before an approaching train. He tarried on the track too long and was run over and killed.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Bonding, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow."

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—A young man from Fleming county yet in his teens, was divorced last month and married again last week.

—Miss Lucy Guerrant, daughter of Rev. E. O. Guerrant, of Wilmore, will be married Nov. 16, to Mr. Will Guerrant, a distant relative, of Virginia.

—This announcement is made in the Harrodsburg papers: The marriage of Sam C. Lackey, of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Bettie, daughter of Mr. Dave Vandersall, will take place in Harrodsburg, Nov. 23d.

—Announcements of the marriage of Miss Elise S. Whitman, of Pulaski City, Va., to Mr. B. Frank McLeod, Jr., which occurred Oct. 25th, inform the receiver that they will be at home after Nov. 1 at 110 Beaufain street, Charleston, S. C.

—The marriage of Mr. Will Severance to Miss Mamie Pickett, of Shelby, will occur at the home of Col. Pickett tomorrow at high noon and after a lunch the wedding party will go to Louisville, afterwards coming direct to Stanford. The leading man in the drama and Dr. A. S. Price left for the scene this morning.

—A very unnatural story is sent out from Vanceburg, how an old man of 80, who had wooed, won and married a pretty young widow, consented to a divorce when he found out she loved the handsomer and younger hired man, and permitted them to marry and live in his house, which he will give them after his death. The recital bears the persuasive odor of its own improbability.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Young Men's Christian Association has gone the way of the previous endeavor to run a Christian Endeavor here.

—Rev. W. A. Slaymaker returned from Bloomfield, Saturday, where he held a 10 days meeting for Rev. J. J. Hill, which resulted in five additions to the church.

—Mr. Coleman O. Groves, of Mt. Sterling will deliver a lecture before the Christian Endeavor Society at Walnut Flat, Wednesday night, Nov. 1st. Everyone invited. Mr. Groves will be the guest of Messrs. O. L. and T. W. Jones.

—The elder Elder Tharp, of Middle-town, near Louisville, is now in his 77th year, while his brother, Elder J. J. Tharp, of Mt. Sterling, is 68. His son, Elder Wallace Tharp, of Carlisle, goes to Augusta, Ga., after a $2,400 salary.—Paris Kentuckian.

—The protracted meeting at Nonesuch, Woodford county, closed on Sunday night with 16 additions, making 37 during the meeting there and at Troy. Dr. Bachman left on the 16th and Dr. Guerrant continued meeting until the 23d.—Jessamine Journal.

—A revival meeting which has been in progress at Grier's Creek church the past four weeks, conducted by Revs. G. H. Rout, T. J. Bacher and Jos. Hopper, came to a close last Sunday night with 45 additions to the Presbyterian church and 8 or 9 who will unite with other churches.—Woodford Sun.

—Four millions of the people's money was dumped into the sea when the big battleship, Oregon, was launched at San Francisco. Nineteen hundred years after the birth of the Prince of Peace the cost of the preparation for war is still the heaviest burden borne by the so-called Christian nations of the earth.—Louisville Times.

—The Christian Endeavor is increasing and multiplying. The attendance Sunday was large and the interest great. C. E. Tate presided and a feature of the meeting was a solo by Miss Lucy Johns, "The Lord Jesus is Standing," in which she fully sustained her previous efforts and proved herself as versatile as she is a most charming vocalist. Mr. P. M. McRoberts' address on the responsibility—the one to the other—was another notable feature. Nearly all of the members responded in some way as their names were called.

Fetter's Southern Magazine has increased its circulation to a remarkable extent. During the months of August, September and October, in spite of the depression in business, this magazine has been in such demand that each edition has been exhausted and the publishers compelled to decline orders which they were unable to fill.

—Doc Taylor, a notorious outlaw, who was hung at Wise Court House, Va., preached his own funeral sermon and made the request that his body be kept out of the grave three days in which time he thought he could resurrect himself.
